

A school is more than CLASSROOMS and BUILDINGS

Let's talk about
Schools Insurance

Schools are responsible for protecting learners, staff, assets, technology, and their reputation. At Econorisk, we understand that educational institutions face increasingly complex risks, that require specialist advice and support.

From fire, theft, and accidental damage to cyber threats and liability claims, educational institutions face a broad range of risks that can impact operations and financial stability.

At Econorisk, we offer tailored insurance solutions designed to protect schools and educational institutions against these risks, giving school management the confidence to focus on providing quality education.

Whether you are responsible for a public school, private school, college, academy, training centre, or boarding school, we can help you find cover suited to your specific requirements.

Protecting your school means protecting the people, property and resources that make learning possible.

Whether you manage a small independent school or a large multi-campus institution, our Schools Insurance solutions can be tailored to your specific operational requirements, assets, and risk exposures.

Our team understands the unique risks facing educational institutions, from protecting school property and technology assets to managing cyber exposures and liability risks. We take the time to understand your school's specific requirements and structure cover accordingly, while providing ongoing support throughout the life of your policy.

Get in touch with our specialist team and let us find the right insurance solution for your educational institution.
